

JOE PIERCE

VICE PRESIDENT

Joe Pierce joined ERES as a Vice President and key member of its Brokerage team. His credentials include over 17 years of commercial real estate experience, first-hand knowledge of the energy industry and hands-on insight into key operational issues for businesses both large and small.

Joe has extensive expertise with both public and private developers and owners, and a deep understanding of a wide spectrum of property types including office, industrial, medical and land. To date, he has led leasing efforts for nearly 60 properties totaling close to 7 million square feet and $300 million in gross revenue. His experience includes landlord and tenant representation, build to suit projects, dispositions, contract negotiations and market analysis.

Over the last two decades, Joe has served in leadership positions for a variety of real estate firms and organizations geared toward oilfield and energy services. His professional experience has given him on-the-ground exposure to some of the most active energy markets in the U.S. including Colorado, Wyoming and North Dakota.

Joe lives in Colorado with his wife and two sons. He enjoys golf and coaching youth basketball and football.
